

Changes to TAFE in Western Australia

Frequently asked questions

What will my TAFE be called after 11 April 2016?

There is an easy reference available on the Department's website which you can use to find out the name of the TAFE college you will be studying at. Look for the TAFE colleges and campus locations fact sheet.

Will I have to do my training at another location?

No, there will be minimal impact to enrolled students. There will be no change to training courses offered or course locations. You should attend classes at your current campus as normal.

Which student services number should I contact if I have queries?

Contact Student Services at your current TAFE college. The telephone numbers are at the end of these Frequently asked questions.

I have completed my course. Whom do I contact to obtain a copy of my academic record?

Your academic record will still be held by your TAFE college. To find out what your TAFE college will be called from 11 April, look for the TAFE colleges and campus locations fact sheet on the Department's website.

At which campus will I pay my fees next semester?

You will need to pay fees at the campus for the course you are enrolled in. Please go to Student Services on campus to arrange the payment of fees.

Will the fees change and will they be different at the new college?

The changes to TAFE will not affect course fees.

Will I still be studying the same course?

Yes, you will be studying the same course. If you have a query about course enrolment information contact your current TAFE college. The telephone numbers for TAFE colleges are at the end of these Frequently asked questions.

Will my certificate and statement of academic record be issued with the new TAFE name?

Yes, the new TAFE structure will be operational from 11 April 2016 and will begin issuing certificates and statements of academic record as of that date.

I am an apprentice/trainee – whom do I contact?

The Apprenticeship Office can provide information or refer you to an appropriate service. They can be contacted by telephone on 13 19 54 or email at apprenticeshipoffice@dtwd.wa.gov.au. Further information about apprenticeships and traineeships is available at www.dtwd.wa.gov.au/apprenticeship-office

Will I have the same lecturers?

Yes, you will have the same lecturers and the same timetable as you had before the changes to the college structures.

What will happen to my VET FEE-HELP loan?

Your existing VET FEE-HELP loan debt will not be affected by the changes to TAFE in WA. Students continuing in a course after 11 April will be assisted by their TAFE college to re-submit their details for VET FEE-HELP.
